JACK EOSSTER IN ENGLAND.—The famous treating horse Jack Rossiter, formerly owned in Buffalo, and new in England, has been astonishing the horse racing Britons by a performance never before accomplished in that country, as we learn by the following paragraph from the Northern (Eng.) Times:

"The hitherto unaccomplished feat of treeting 20 miles within an hour (in England) was performed yesterday by a horse called Jack Rossiter (an American). He was handled by a Yarkee joekey, specially brought over for the occusion."

THE GREAT SOUTH CARDILYA TENNEL.—A few days also there was a very large and estimasatic vessing in his editor to the place in the country, just the right distance from the city, pleasant rottens, pleasant people, a good table, plenty of charle, no mosquitoe, rica drives, and the best possible air. Don't you will Hall Amerda drives leave the mediately avery one would be negotiated where it was?
